

WEEKEND OF PRAYER INITIATIVE: The Courage to Love

Weekend of Prayer: The Courage to Love, is an opportunity for all faith communities in the metro area to opt-in to a series of activities that encourage unity and community-driven reflection using July 1967 as a catalyst for dialogue.

Based on the popularity of this initiative that was originally observed July 21- 23, 2017, we are pleased to extend our invitation to all faith communities in the metro area! All congregations are welcome to take part in this observance from now until December 31st 2017.

Our theme: The Courage to Love is inspired by the idea that in order to unpack the history surrounding the civil unrest that occurred that summer, we must first start with our ability to identify our commonalities and honor our differences. All faith communities (e.g., mosques, synagogues, churches, temples) are invited to participate in the Weekend of Prayer in any variety of ways that the groups feel will be most meaningful to their members/congregations.

For more information and to confirm your faith organization's participation please send: the faith community's name, phone, email, and the idea that you'd like to pursue through this initiative. Sent to kalishad@detroithistorical.org or call: 313-833-4306. Once we've collected the ideas we will make them available here so that you can explore the option of collaborating with other communities also participating.

DETROIT  DETROIT DETROIT
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

LOOKING BACK TO MOVE FORWARD